BEST PRACTICE 1

Title of the Practice: Enlightening Us Enriching All: Commitment through community service.

Sub title: Community Service through Village Adoption

Objectives of the Practice

The Context

The NSS Unit of Moran College adopted a village named Amguri Raidangia Gaon, Charaideo district on 31st October 2022 with a ceremony they organised with 90 volunteers. The Amguri Raidangia village consists of more than 230 families and a population of around 1500 people. On that very day NSS Special Camp at the adopted village was organised with a general meeting with Cabinet Minister Sir. Jugen Mohan and public. The village consists mainly of tea garden community families. The village also has a slum area. Mostly the villagers depend on agriculture and work in tea garden for their living. The socio- economic background of the village is poor and villagers are educationally backward. In fact, the transportation and communication system is poor. Therefore, the village has been adopted in a view to develop the quality of living standard of the villagers. Moreover, the mission of the village adoption is to aware and sensitized the villagers on various issues and develop capacity building of children and vocational skills of the adults.

The Practice

Since the adoption of the Amguri, Raidangia village the NSS unit has been taking initiative to provide better opportunities of living and to develop human resource.

Cleanliness & Plantation Drive

In the villages cleanliness and plantation drive were organised during special camp and under Swaccha Bharat mission.

A free village library has been set up in Amguri Raidangia village to encourage children and people to read books. The books were donated by the students and faculties of the college.

Free Village Library

Workshop Conducted

Various workshops were conducted in the last five years in the adopted village. Such as workshop on Organic Mushroom Framing, Sericulture Practices, Vermicompost Practices, Bio fertilizer management, Rose Flower Cultivation and Yoga and Self Defense for Children, Fire Safety Mock Drill etc. for benefit of the villagers.

The NSS Unit even tried and worked for construction of village roads connected to the main road by earth filling, construction of culvert etc. Construction of bamboo dustbins and bamboo fencing to cover the saplings that were planted by the students in the village were done.

Construction

Awareness Program

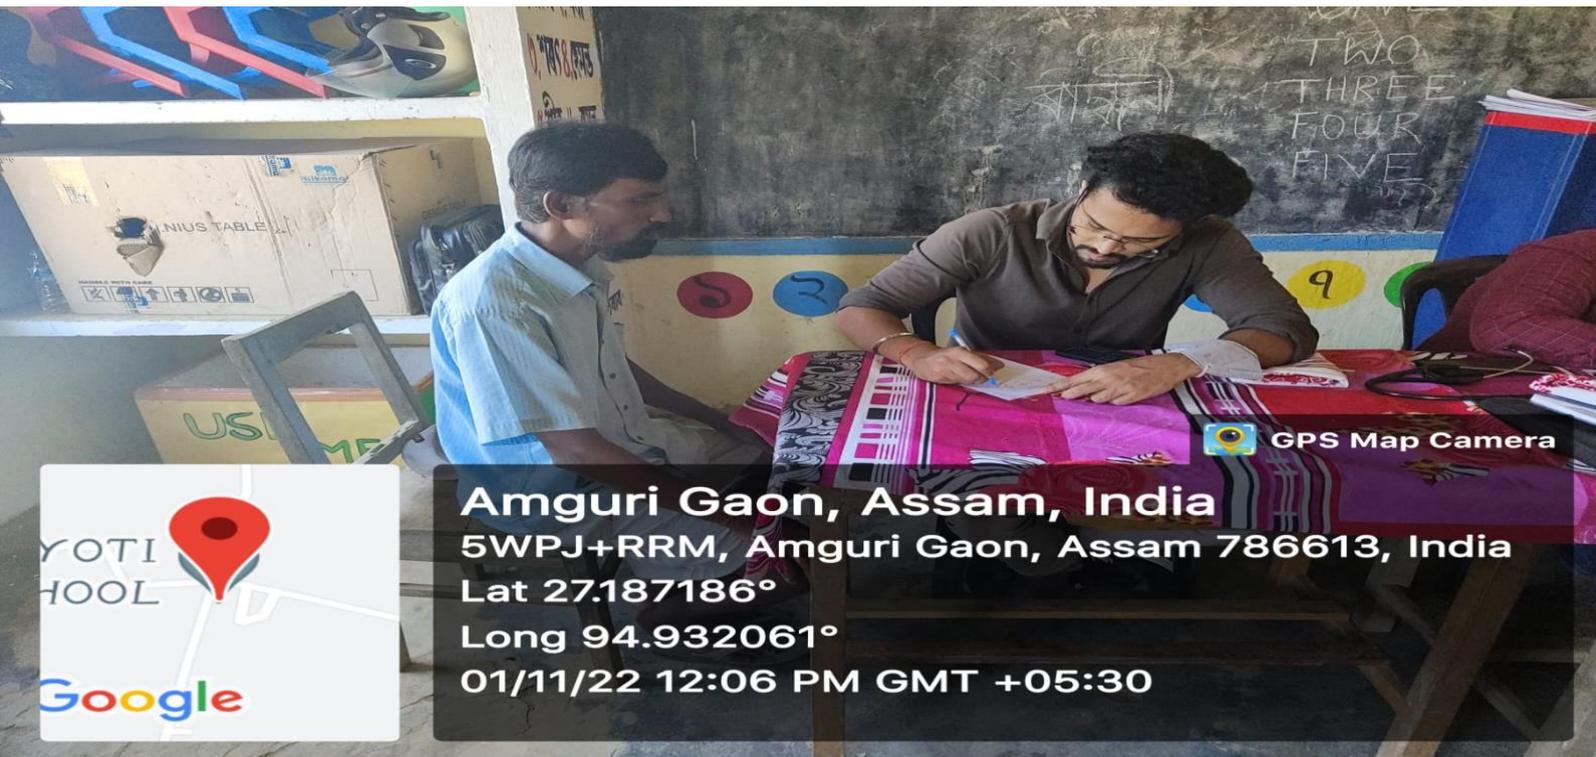

During Covid 19 pandemic, the NSS Unit distributed masks, sanitizer and food among the villagers of Dakshin Borpather Gaon and aware them on Covid-19. Other awareness programmes such as Tobacco Control and Cancer Prevention was also undertaken.

The NSS Day 2018, Fit India Movement 2019, National Nutrition Month etc. were observed and celebrated in the villages. Different cultural programmes and competitions are also organised from time to time in the villages i). For capacity building of the children of the villagers different competitions were conducted by the NSS unit. Art Competition, Extempore Speech, Poem Recitation etc. were being organised on 5th November 2022.

Problems Encountered:

- Villagers' hesitation to come forward and participate in the workshops.
- Tight schedule of semester classes is an obstacle faced by students to participate and engage in the programmes.
- Lack of cooperation from the Amguri Raidongia HS school's principal for our services.
- Funds provided by the NSS Cell is not sufficient.

Resources Required:

- More participation of villagers in the programmes.
- Active participation of more faculty members of the college.
- More funds should be provided to conduct more valuable work.

BEST PRACTICE 2

Title of the Practice: Empowering youth leaders for effective administration

Sub Title: Functioning of Moran College Students' Union with coordination of College Administration

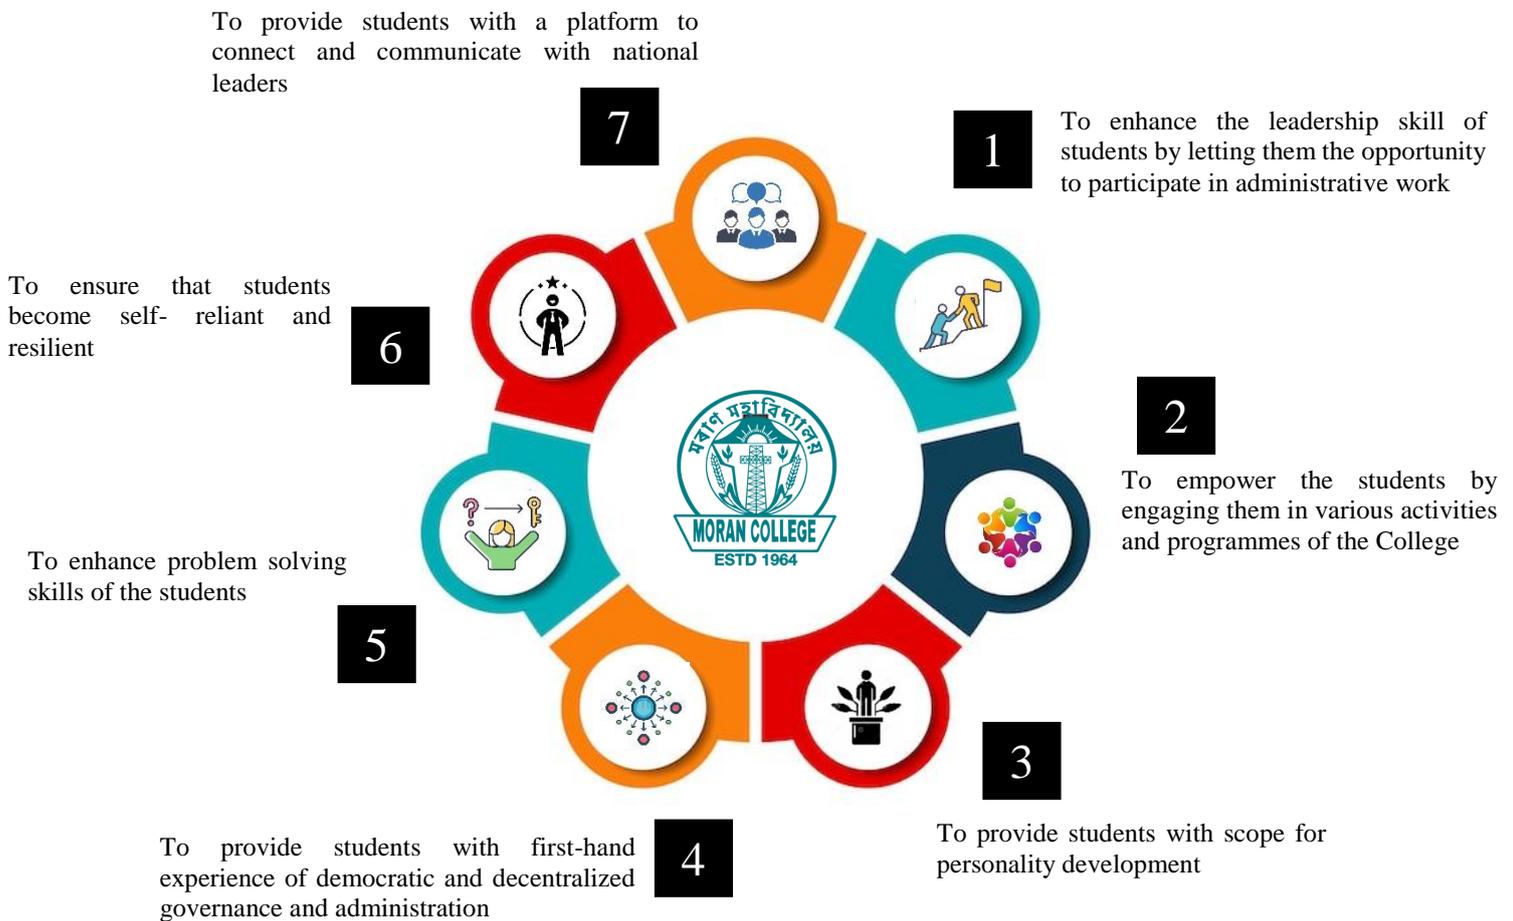

BEST PRACTICE 2

Title of the Practice: Empowering youth leaders for effective administration

Sub Title: Functioning of Moran College Students' Union with coordination of College Administration

Objectives of the Practice

The College makes this practice with the following aims and objectives in mind:

The Context

Moran College in the last five years has been thriving to empower the youth of the nation. Keeping in view that the strength of the nation rests upon the youth, the college has been able to create a healthy democratic environment for its students to participate in governance and administration.

- The Moran College has a democratically elected students' Union named as Moran College Student's Union. The voting is conducted by means of electronic voting machines.
- Candidates from all the departments and different socio-religious-economic backgrounds.
- The elected union body members function very effectively as follows:

The body conducts its executive meeting with all the secretaries, Department Representative on problems faced by the students of the college. Then the problems are listed out and they prepare a memorandum to be submitted to the college authority. The college authority, IQAC and the student body then holds a meeting while submitting the memorandum and discusses the problems and further steps to be taken. The works that are approved by the college authority is then entrusted to the respective secretary of the body to be done. The functioning is monitored and supervised by the General Secretary and President of the body. Likewise respective works are entrusted to the different secretaries according to the departments. The progress and completion of the work is informed to the college authority and IQAC. Then it is informed to the students of the college and necessary feedback is taken. To provide information and keep students up to date of their functioning the body has active WhatsApp groups and Facebook Page.

The Practice

Student's Election: Each year Moran College organises students' election in the purpose to elect the members of the Moran College Student's Union. Voting is done and completed through Electronic voting system. The Election Committee headed by the Returning Officer followed by Presiding Officer, Polling Officer, Counting Officer conducts the election democratically.

Students Participation in Governance: The authority and administration of the institution allows the student leaders to participate in various activities of the college. The functioning of the Union Body itself reflects democratize participation in governance.

Organising Events: The secretaries and members of the Moran College Students' Union take decisions and organises events such as Brahmaputra Utsav and Luka Kristi Xomaroh and so on.

Leadership Building: The various Departments of the college encourages students to participate in team work and group activities so that the students develop leadership skills. Eminent persons are invited to the college to give speech and interact with students in a way to motivate students for productive work and do good for the nation.

Feedback: The Union Body collects necessary feedback from the students to know about their faults and progress received from the students.

Evidence of Success

After taking charge, the members of Moran College Students' Union work to fulfil their manifesto. Some of the work that the Union body of 2021-22 and 2022-23 has been able to complete are as follows:

a). The Union Body (2021-22) has been successful in setting up a new office for their body on 8th June 2022.

Problems Encountered:

- The tight schedule of classes, sessional and final examinations under CBCS
- curriculum acts as a barrier to students to work accordingly.
- Sometimes the administration decisions are not according to the needs and decisions of the union body and students.
- Lack of funds for its functioning.

Resources Required:

- More faculty participation and encouragement in the functioning of the body.
- More skill development and vocational and professional courses for the students.
- More participatory programmes for the students.
